

An animal that was a רובע or רובע cannot be offered as a קרבן, but a תמורה can be made with such an animal.

Every thirty days the גבאים (administrators) of the בית המקדש and the sellers would agree on the price to be paid for products that month.

פרק התרומה

One who buys produce from an עם הארץ must be מפריש תרומות (no ברכה is said). This is called דמאי. If the produce is being used as animal feed, there is no דמאי.

A סנהדרין must minimally have one member who can understand seventy languages, and one who can speak seventy languages.

Being as how the כהנים would walk barefoot on a stone floor, eat a lot of meat and drink a lot of water, they were susceptible to illness. Therefore, there was always a doctor appointed to watch over the כהנים and heal them when necessary.

There was always a person appointed to ensure that ditches and wells were dug in ירושלים for the residents and the עולי רגל.